The Colts' Peyton Manning is helping to make Thanksgiving a little brighter for hundreds of local families.

His Payback Foundation sponsored a grocery giveaway Tuesday night at Riverside Park. The Colts quarterback was there to lend a helping hand. Hundreds of families got a full Thanksgiving meal.

"We're going to serve food gift bags to about 700 needy families. That's about 100 more than last year's. There's a lot of people that don't have life easy and have tough times. This is a small way to help some families have something good to eat on Thanksgiving Thursday," said Manning.

Peyton will be back on the field Sunday at home against Philadelphia.
